WHO WE ARE :

Olixer Pro-Consult brings together experienced professionals who are dedicated to providing effective treatment and related services to those all those who suffer from Addiction, whether process or substance addictions. We cater to any affected individuals, family members, employers, colleagues as well as institutions as the case may warrant. We endeavor to provide a perspicacious environment in which healing can occur.

We recognize that mental health is a major concern across the globe with addiction rapidly on the rise. Many parents, siblings, institutions and organizations continue to spend heavily on treatment and other forms of intervention to try and curb substance abuse. We are able to complement and make these efforts more productive.
